Kimberly --

I just had the husband of a former student call me, out of the blue, to complain about the same faculty member that you and I have been discussing. I was honestly trying to get him to stop talking to me, I told him several times to call you instead, but his story goes WELL beyond the little comments that the two current students (who may or may not have yet contacted you?) are talking about -- and, amazingly, the things that these two current girls are complaining about are what this guy describes as "how it started" with his wife, he is confirming their story even though he has no idea that they exist. And he is VERY willing and ready to talk, no problems on that one.....

I don't know how much you can talk to the husband of an ex student, but if you could call him he would like to talk to you -- his name is _____, is all I have, and the phone number is _____. And if that's inappropriate, if you're not allowed to talk to the angry husband or whatever, could you just let me know that so I can get back to him? Thanks --

Anne
